More Fun and Excitement!

MMC Book Club

DAY: Thursday, August 28
TIME: noon to 1 p.m.
ROOM: Activity Room #1

Do you love to read? Are you a bookworm? Would you like to discuss your thoughts, reactions, and opinions of books with other book lovers? If you answered "yes" to any of these then the MMC book club has a place for you! This is a great way to make friends, discover new books, and stay socially active. The book club meets the last Thursday of each month. Free for members! You must be a member of MMC to participate.

Here is a list of the books the club is reading in 2025:

August 28 - "The Women" by Kristin Hannah
September 25 - "Where Wild Peaches Grow" by Cade Bentley
October 30 - "My Father's List" by Laura Carney (not on Amazon)
November 27 - "Bring on the Blessings" by Beverly Jenkins
December - "Christmas With Book" by Heather Woodhaven

Volunteer

Have you contemplated the opportunity to teach a class or program? This presents a valuable chance to impart your knowledge and passion while contributing positively to the community. Whether you possess expertise in a particular skill, hobby, or academic subject, teaching can serva as a rewarding endeavor that promotes learning and engagement among members. We encourage individuals to reflect on this opportunity to inspire and educate others.

For more information regarding involvement, contact our Program Director, Karen Porterfield at (302) 734-1200, extension 129 for more information. Or you can email her at karen.porterfield@modern-maturity.org. Please note that you MUST be a member of the Modern Maturity Center to conduct any type of class or program. "It is the supreme art of the teacher to awaken joy in creative expression and knowledge" (Albert Einstein)
